

TATME Congress 2019
Transanal and robotic approach to rectal surgery

8th – 10th september, 2019
St. Gallen, CH

Workshop Program: - preliminary

Sunday 8th

Workshop for surgeons:
Rectal Cancer – Diagnostic and Therapeutic Update
What surgeons should know! & Tips and Tricks from Experts!

13.30 – 15.30 Moderation: Colin Sietses, Stephan Vorburger

Welcome and Introduction	Walter Brunner, Colin Sietses
Endoscopy & Endosonography: Flexible and rigid	Stephan Baumeler & Lukas Marti, CH
CT&MRI - Staging: what should you do?	Svetlana Balyasnikova, UK
Local excision – endoscopic vs transanal TAMIS?	Remus Frei & Felix Aigner, G
RCT – and local excision alone?	Hans de Wilt, NL

Coffee break 15.30 – 16.00

16.00 – 18.30 Moderation: Roel Hompes, Jim Khan

Anorectal Anatomy – important perspectives for surgeons	Thilo Wedel, G
Open approach: Is there a place left?	Brendan Moran, UK
Laparoscopy: standard techniques	Friedrich Herbst, A
Robotic: best approach, pitfalls	Marcus Gomez, SP
Transanal: best approach , pitfalls	Colin Sietses, NL

Workshop for nurses:
Update in innovative colorectal procedures
evtl.in English /German / French

13.00 – 15.30 Moderation: Juriaan Tuynman, Laurent Chabal

Welcome and Introduction	Walter Brunner, Colin Sietses
Overview on innovative colorectal procedures	Stephan Bischofberger, CH
Transvaginal – NOTES and NOSE	Juriaan Tuynman, NL
Transanal resections	Antonino Spinelli, I
Robotic assisted resections	Matthias Turina, CH
Deferred life - what can we learn?	Joep Knol, B

Coffee break 15.30 – 16.00

16.00 – 18.30 Moderation: Joep Knol, Matthias Turina

Setup for transanal approach	Marga Bogaert & Bianca Knaepen, B
Setup for robotic approach	Loredana Stursi, CH
Education for OR nurses	Kerstin Buhmann, G
Stoma placement and handling – what OR nurses should know!	Stephan Vorburger & Laurent Chabal, CH
The patients perspective	J. E.